SUSTAIN Final Conference SAVE THE DATE!

SUSTAIN Final Conference

Sustainable tailored integrated care for older people in Europe

13 March 2019
Brussels, Belgium
SAVE THE DATE

The SUSTAIN consortium is glad to announce the SUSTAIN Final Conference, which will take place on Wednesday, 13th March 2019. You are warmly invited to take part in this one-day event in Brussels, Belgium.

During the conference, the SUSTAIN project will be presented in all its aspects: the research carried out within its framework will be showcased; the integrated care sites which took part in the project will be introduced; and the achieved results in order to reach better integrated care for older people will be explained.

Further information on the event venue and conference programme will be released closer to the date; therefore, you are kindly invited to save the date and check the SUSTAIN website. See you soon in Brussels!

SUSTAIN at the EPH Conference

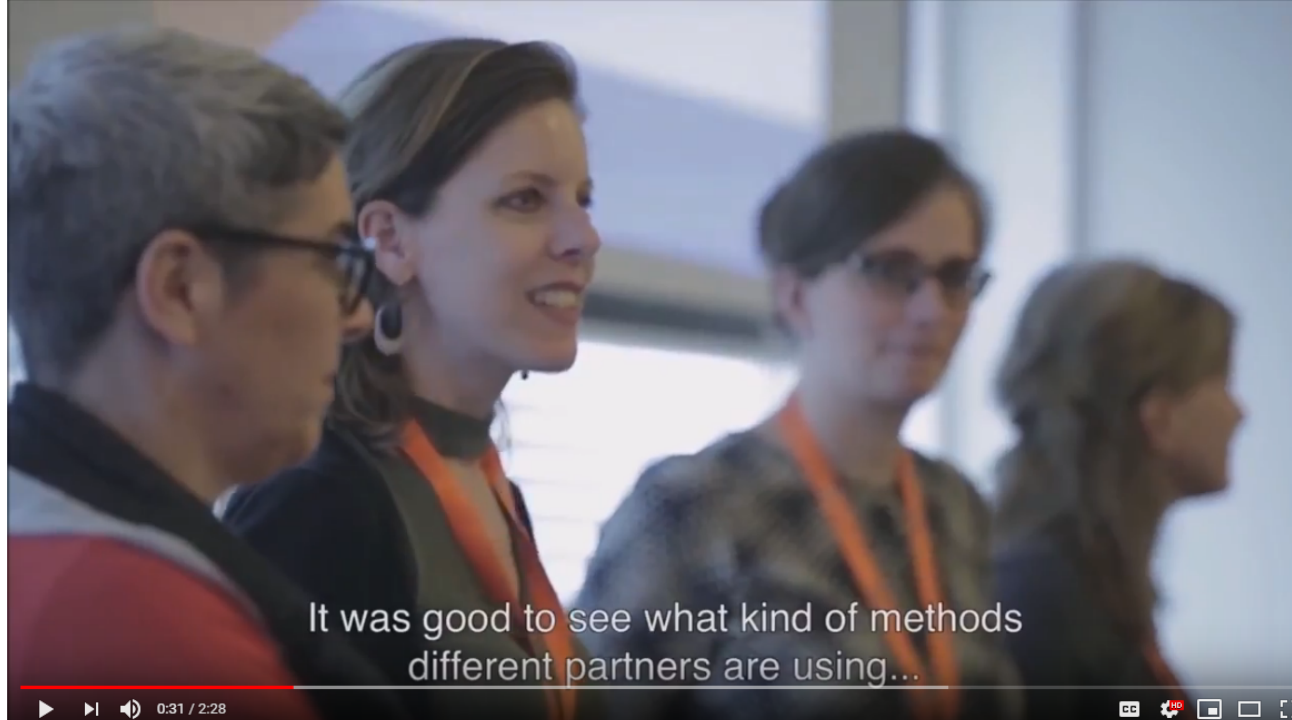

The SUSTAIN project will be present at the EPH Conference with a session titled "Bridging research to policy to integrate care for older people in Europe". The session, that will see the participation of by EHMA, IFIC, AGE Platform and Vilans on behalf of the SUSTAIN consortium, will be part of the pre-conference programme and will take place on Wednesday, 28th November 2018 from 15.30 to 17.00.

The session will aim at presenting the SUSTAIN project, paying particular attention to person centeredness and the role of integrated care in providing quality care for older people. Furthermore, the research conducted and the Roadmap designed as part of the SUSTAIN project will be presented. The session will also try to instigate a debate around the users' response to integrated care; the role of leadership and management in improvement plans implementation; and how the Roadmap could facilitate the link between research and policy.
